Two Years More Work on Temple Will Cost Million

In the opinion of C. B. Strong, a Raymond mason employed on the great Latterday Saint's temple at Cardston, two more years will be required to complete the building. In an interview recently with the Leader he stated that the walls were now half way up the central steel. The walls are all fireproof and of reinforced concrete lining. Mr. Strong believes a million dollar will be expended before the temple is finished.

The roofs now being constructed are a foot in thickness. First comes the tile, then 6 inches of concrete, 2 coats of tarred felt, then a top-ping of 2 inches of cement. All water from the roofs flows inward, so that it will be carried down into the basement instead of draining to the outside. All drain pipes will be concealed.

Mr. Strong told of the placing of three of the great granite canopies which cap the pillars. Three of these are in place. They each weigh 3 and a half tons. Some difficulty is being experienced in the matter of labor. About forty men are now working on the building.

FOR SALE—One 36x60 Rumely Separator, feeder, blower 18 feet, weigher and belts, will sell cheap. If taken at once.

Apply Herman Hillier, Magrath, Alta.

FOR SALE—For cash, easy terms or will trade for either cattle or horses two improved town lots, description, Lots 4 and 5, Blk. 178, Plan 4483. There is a good house, barn and other buildings on lots. Apply, Bert Kenney, Raymond.

See Town of Raymond,
Raymond, Alta.

Dear Sir,

I am replying to your request of a few days ago, regarding extending to me an invitation to go back to Raymond to practice. I must thank you very much for the esteem you hold me. I can say nothing definitely at present. I am returning to Edmonton this week, and if the town has not blown away I will likely remain there.

However I will keep in touch with you for the next month or so. I understand Dr. Wray has left for Europe. I have had quite a time this last year. However I am back and glad to be. Give my respects and thanks to all my friends of Raymond and Stirling.

Yours Truly
F. A. Keillor

FOR SALE—A Comfortable five roomed house with lights and water, splendid location. A Bargain. Apply George Speedie, Raymond.

"The Spoilers," by Rex Beach, Here On Monday Next

George H. Brewerton, manager of the Rex theatre, has secured the playing rights in southern Alberta for Rex Beach's famous production, "The Spoilers." This is considered by press and public to be one of the finest pictures ever produced. It will appear here next Monday and will doubtless be received by a capacity house. Mr. Brewerton will then tour Southern Alberta with the picture.

Women's Institute

Sept. 20, at Mrs. D. H. Kinsey's home the Institute will convene under the following program will be rendered: Canadian Civics, Mrs. Gordon, vocal solo, Mrs. Phyllis Brewerton, Fiddle Making, Mrs. O'Brien, piano solo, Mrs. Edna Fairbanks. All ladies welcome.

Raymond Losing A Valuable Citizen

It is with regret that it becomes the duty of the Leader this week to record the early departure of Mr. and Mrs. William Blair from Raymond. Mr. Blair has sold out his drug business to Mrs. C. Fletcher and Douglas Fowler, of Magrath, who will conduct the business under the name of the Raymond Pharmacy.

Mr. Blair is moving to High River having an interest in a drug store in that town. Since coming to Raymond he has made a wide circle of friends who are very sorry to see him depart. Mr. Blair was always a live, energetic citizen and a loyal booster for Raymond. We can ill-afford to lose such men. Mrs. Blair, too, has many friends who will miss her pleasant society.

The business was transferred yesterday. It will be the first of September before Mr. and Mrs. Blair will leave for their new home.

The new proprietors are already well known here. Mr. Fletcher is proprietor of the Magrath Pharmacy, and is one of the best druggists in the province. Mr. Fowler since finishing his course at Alberta University has been employed by Jackson and Company of Lethbridge. He will be in charge of the store in Raymond. The Leader welcomes these two men in local business circles.

M. I. A. Convention

Today and tomorrow the Mutual Improvement workers in the Taylor stakes in Raymond for the annual convention. Oscar Kirkham, of Salt Lake, the live wire field superintendent of the Y.M.M.I.A., also Mrs. Cannon, of the Y.M.M.I.A., are here and will attend the sessions. Workers will be present from every ward in the stakes, and sessions will be held each morning and afternoon at the Knight Academy.

This evening in the Academy the stake board will entertain the visiting delegates at a social and dance. It is understood that some new dances will be introduced by the visiting representatives.

"Charley's Aunt," appeared at the Opera House last week, and the small audience thoroughly enjoyed this old favorite. With a good cast the humor in the piece received its proper interpretation, calling forth rounds of laughter.

The Knight Academy is considering the introduction of several new features this year. Latin will be taught by Inst. Blainmore, a special course in domestic science for mothers will be taken up by Miss Romney, and it is likely that Inst. Holmes will introduce a class in agriculture. The enrollment at the K. A. is steadily growing, and Pres. Romney feels confident of a large attendance.

Members of the stake Sunday School board, returning from Taber after holiday union meeting there, were stranded near Chin County. They were riding in Mr. King's car and the engine refused to work. A car from Lethbridge was at last secured, and the dead machine was trailed into the city. It was about five o'clock when the party arrived in Raymond.

Miss Layton Peterson has accepted a position in King brother's store.

Mrs. Gliese left Monday morning for Utah, where she will visit for a few months.

Town Council Held A Busy Session

Thursday evening, Sept. 7, the town council met in regular session with Mayor O'Brien and Aldermen Alfred, Fisher, Brimhall and Salmon present, also Solicitor Ostlund.

Dr. Wray complained of the withholding of $12 from his salary as medical health officer. This sum was paid to another doctor for service rendered Joseph Maudsley in his recent siege of measles. The matter was held over pending additional information.

Letters were received from Dr. Keillor from Wallacetown, Ont., and Dr. Rose, of Coalhurst, relative to locating in Raymond. Dr. Keillor's letter appears in another column of this issue. Dr. Rose wishes the council to stand behind a small public hospital and also to guarantee a stipulated salary. The secretary was instructed to write Dr. Rose inviting him to go over the proposition.

The Ellison Milling company wrote complaining of the water that drained from the streets of the town into the vacant space surrounding their plant. This was not only an annoyance but entailed a great deal of expense to the company. They asked for some relief in the matter of grading and drainage. The communication was referred to the Works and Property committee.

The appointment of Dr. Dice as M. H. O. was postponed in view of the negotiations now in progress for a resident physician.

Ald. Salmon brought in some good legislation when he recommended ten more street lights for Broadway. The Leader has been working for this improvement for a long time, and it is very pleasing to see that the council has finally taken action. The lights will be installed at once.

It was decided to allow a discount of 5 per cent on all taxes paid on or before the 15th of November.

Fair Notes

The agricultural society wish to thank the business men of the town for the splendid financial aid they gave to the recent fair and stampede. The willing and efficient services of the Military Band was also greatly appreciated.

The Ellison Milling company's prize for the best loaf of bread made from "Our Best" flour went to Mrs. S. Farnham Kimball, Mrs. Bryner second. The P. Burns prize for the best 5 pounds of butter were won by Mrs. Vance and Mrs. Stevenson respectively.

Altogether, the society may well feel proud of the exhibition. Aside from the Stampede it was a show that would have well repaid a thorough visit. It was one of the best mediums of publicity Raymond has had for many a day.

No Frost Damage

Careful investigations made throughout the Raymond and Magrath districts by the Leader relative to the frost of Wednesday evening brings to light that the damage done was extremely small, scarcely worthy of mention. Along the ridge where the grain is late the crops were nipped a little, but elsewhere no injury whatever was done. Cutting is progressing splendidly and fully 75 per cent of the crop is down.

In a letter to a member of the Leader staff written from Follstone, Pte. John Bridge states that all of the boys from the south country with a very few exceptions have gone to France and are now at the front. All of the Japs from Raymond are at the front, being delighted to get in the fighting lines, according to the letter. Jack Sweet is with the engineers, also Henry Gibb, Pte. Bridge is impressed with the beauty of England, although he has not been granted leave to do any visiting.

Mrs. J. L. Finlayson was a passenger on Thursday's train for the south, and will spend a holiday with relatives and friends in Utah. Mrs. Card, who has been visiting her son, George, here for the past month, returned to Provo by the same train.

Mrs. F. W. Karren left for Winnipeg where she will meet her husband. They will visit in the city for a few days before departing for home.

J. W. Evans and Amos Peterson returned last week from a business trip to R.C. They have extensive mining interests in the vicinity of Revelstoke, and prospects for the future are very bright.

Lieut. F. W. Karren is expected to arrive home Monday from Halifax. Pte. Clarence Oulund is also returning having been discharged on account of defective hearing.

Walter Ackroyd returned recently from a trip to Utah and Idaho. Mr. Ackroyd says that every available acre of land in these states is rapidly being taken up. While in Salt Lake he heard Justice Hughes, Republican candidate, deliver an address in the tabernacle, and was very favorably impressed.

A party of Magrath ladies visited Raymond Wednesday to attend an afternoon "tea" in honor of Mrs. B. L. Jensen at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. H. Dudley. A pleasant afternoon was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nielsen have moved to Lethbridge. Mr. Nielsen is now on the road for the Nielsen Milling company. Will Murray has succeeded Mr. Nielsen here.

The death occurred recently in Eldorado of Joseph Sandall, according to the Deseret News. He was a resident of Magrath for several years. Mrs. Alex Munroe, of Spring Coulees, is a daughter.

R. W. Bradshaw sold 600 head of sheep to P. Burns and company this week. Floyd Bradshaw also sold a bunch of wethers.

Miss Afton Jensen left for Provo, Utah, Thursday morning to resume her musical studies. Miss Laura Fiske left for Utah, also, and will visit in Salt Lake indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fletcher have moved to Grassy Lake, where Mr. Fletcher has purchased an interest in the store of W. T. Fletcher and Son.

Cornell Watson left this week for Logan, Utah, where he will enter for the civil engineering department of the Utah Agricultural College.

The new Long Jim building will be ready for occupation next week. Contractor Roberts is rushing the work with all possible speed. Mr. Baker is now doing the plastering.

The town council held a short session Wednesday morning confirming the tax rate for the year. It will be the same as last year.

Our readers are reminded of the fact that the fall fair will be held at the Exhibition Park, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 29—30. Most of the harvesting rush will then be over and a big crowd is expected. Exhibitors should begin preparing for their displays now. It is not too early. Saturday will be the big day of sport, one of the best in Southern Alberta this year.

The Magrath creamery has enjoyed a very successful year thus far, although cream receipts are now falling off to quite a considerable extent. For the seven months ending July 31st, the creamery made more butter than was produced in the whole of 1915, according to the statement of Joseph Harker, manager. Mr. Harker gave the Leader some illuminating figures showing the progress of the industry here, but unfortunately they were misplaced. However, there was a substantial increase in the output and much greater distribution of money.

One noticeable feature was the increase in cream from Raymond. The Raymond station shipped as much cream as was received at Magrath during July. The association is now considering the advisability of establishing a permanent station there and abolishing the cream route. It is thought the farmers will be favorable to this.

AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL

It is the intention of the provincial government to establish an other school of agriculture. This school will be placed somewhere in the extreme southern end of the province. That is certain. The fight for the school is a three-cornered one, if the Leader has the situation correctly lined up. Three towns are bidding for the prize, Taber, Warner and Raymond. It is almost certain to go to one of these towns. Our concern is, what chance has Raymond of securing the school. Raymond has a good chance if the Raymond people wake up and go after it. They will never get it, however, sitting tight and waiting for something to turn up. We are all agreed that Raymond ought to get the school. Geographically, socially, and by reason of her natural endowments, this town is peculiarly adapted to such an institution. Here we have both dry and irrigation farming, sheep and cattle ranching, some of the best horses in the province, a good average climate being about midway between the prairie and the mountains. Again Raymond already is an educational centre. The school atmosphere would need no creation; we have it. Raymond has a clean, healthy social life, and the town boasts of all modern conveniences. With these advantages and others which have not been mentioned, the authorities could not do better than select Raymond.

There is another phase of the question—an important phase too. We refer to our chances politically. It is almost certain that Archie McLean, the local member, will pull for his home town, Taber. Mr. Leffingwell will naturally work hard for Warner. And there is a division in the ranks of the government as a starter. Now, if Premier Sifton is the politician we believe him to be he will settle the difficulty by handing the prize to the third bidder, Raymond. Of course, the distribution of favors from the government "pork" barrel is a very serious matter. No decision will be made hastily. It is possible of course that if Archibald wants the school to go to Taber, why then, of course, being a good friend of the premier and a member of the government, etc., etc.

We understand that Raymond was virtually promised a school of agriculture at one time, that Hon. Duncan Marshall came down to tell our townspeople all about it. Duncan was met by a tremendous crowd in the opera house at night, and being a born politician, the temptation was too great. He forgot all about the school and delivered one of those celebrated, rip-snorting, hide-tearing attacks on the Conservative party. Well, the audience was disappointed, but the minister glided away into the night thinking he had scored a great point.

So, politically, Raymond, should get the school. The government is morally obligated to establish it here. As long as we can recollect, Raymond has stood behind the Liberal government with an amazing fidelity. Why it used to be almost a crime to be a Tory in Raymond, and he is still an object of pity or curiosity. This is a chance for the local Liberal executive to get in some good work. The Leader admits that without the support of this body we can do little. Our system of party politics—we blush to confess it—makes their backing imperative.

So if we all pull for Raymond, we have a good chance of succeeding. But it will take a strong, united, persistent pull—no resting on the laurels. But the school of agriculture will be worth it. No greater asset could be secured by a town.
